Reading Practice:

Find the story in the language you are studying and follow the directions according to your language level.

Level 1-2: Explain the main idea to the story. Justify your answer with specific details from the story.

Level 3-4: Explain the main idea to the story and justify your answer with specific details. Then make a cultural comparison between the target culture and your own. Again, use specific details.

Level 5-6+: Continue the story. Use, at least, 100 words to keep the story going.

Spanish Literacy: Read the "Trabalengua" below. Talk to family members and friends (over the phone or by email) and find out what their favorite tounge twisters are. Turn in 3 different Trabalenguas to your teacher.
